14. The school is not responsible for any student boarding a wrong bus from the school or going to another student's house, without prior permission from the parents and verification of the same by the school authority.
15. Parents are required to educate their children to board the proper bus and in case of any doubt, advise them to stay back in the school for remedial action.
16. The school transport facility will be made available only if seating capacity in a given bus route is available. Admission to the school doesn't guarantee the transport facility.
17. Parents are expected to make their own transport arrangement whenever students have to come before or after the school hours for any competition or activity.
18. The transport fee is charged for the entire year.

EXAMINATION/PROMOTION

Assessment is a day to day activity which a teacher undertakes to know and discover the qualities, talents, abilities and shortcomings of the students. The teacher uses various techniques and methods to know, study and assess the student's mental, physical, social, emotional, aesthetic and spiritual development. The teacher is in constant touch with the students to help them in their all-round development.

To assess the progress of each student in the various subjects and to facilitate an intense study of all the subjects, the performance of the students will be assessed based on periodic tests, half yearly and annual exams as well as notebook work and subject enrichment activities.

All promotions are decided by the Principal in consultation with the teacher at the end of the academic year. Promotion is granted on the basis of the grades/marks obtained in the assessment/examination as well as the general performance during the entire year. In deciding the action. The minimum pass marks in each subject will be 40 percent classes VI to VIII. Special arrangements for assessment/examinations can not be made for pupils who for any reason are absent from any of the tests or examinations. Absence/leave in an assessment/examination will be treated as having received no marks in it.

Written work is only one of the many ways of assessing a student. Even in the written work, the teacher takes into account the QUALITY, ACCURACY, NEATNESS and EFFICIENCY with which the work is done. Besides the written tasks, the students are graded for their response in class, class work, sketches, display of models, charts etc. They are expected to express their thoughts freely and confidently. The teacher also takes into account honesty, creativity and originality of the work, while allotting grades.

Willful breach of the rules and regulations during the examinations is punishable with expulsion from the examination hall, or subsequent cancellation of the entire examination. The result declared by the Principal will be final and will be reconsidered. Parents/Guardians should personally collect the progress report card issued after the exams. Class assessments must also be signed by the parents as and when directed by the teachers. As a general rule, no answer sheets will be shown to the parents.

EXPECTATIONS FROM PARENTS

1. Parents are requested to co-operate with the Director, Principal and staff to ensure effective functioning of the school and the well being of their wards.
2. Parents are co-educators of the child, so it is essential that they mould the character of their wards and instill discipline and moral values.
3. In the interest of the child's future, it is very essential for him/her to imbibe self-discipline. The teacher will take adequate corrective measures to ensure the general discipline of the class under her/his care. The teacher's efforts will bear fruit only with adequate positive inputs from the parents.
4. Parents must sign on the page after taking note of the remarks written by the teacher, in the diary as well as in the test notebooks and guide the child accordingly without undue pressure. Parents are requested to ensure that their remarks in the diary are duly attended by the teachers. If not, they are requested to bring in to the notice of the Principal.
5. Our school strongly discourages private tuitions. The teaching programme in the school is good enough for the students to perform well, provided they are attentive in the class and realise their responsibilities. The habit of self-study and regularity in reading must be encouraged at home.
6. Parents are requested to see that some amount of regular English conversation takes place at home.
7. Parents will be allowed to enter the school premises only after the verification of their credentials by way of checking their I.D. card issued to them by the school authorities.

9. Entry is forbidden for parents and visitors beyond the school Reception Area. Parents are strictly forbidden to go to any class or to the teaching areas without the permission and sanction from the school authorities.
10. Parents should keep in mind that as co-educators of the child, it is very essential to observe the dress code when they are in school premises. Pedal-pushers, Bermuda shorts or any tight fitting or suggestive clothing could be source of distraction or deviation from the normal dress code.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

11. Parents who visit the school during school hours are to make known the purpose of their visit at the reception counter so that they can be attended to. They should not proceed to the classes and disturb the teaching.
12. Criticism of teachers or the school in front of the wards/other parents should be strictly avoided as it causes the student to lose his/her respect for the teachers. If any parent humiliates or insults a teacher, the school reserves the right to ask that parent to withdraw their ward forthwith or at the end of the academic year. If there are genuine complaints pertaining to a teacher, parent register a written complaint against the teacher. According to the nature of the complaint, suitable action will be taken.
13. Parents are expected to converse and communicate ONLY in English in the school premises.
14. Parents should avoid using the school as a meeting place for airing grievances. Communication of problems in writing to the school authorities, will be appreciated. Parents who intentionally organize others to revolt against the management or invite the media into the campus in order to defame the institution, will be asked to withdraw their wards from the school immediately.
15. Parents should ensure that their wards are regular in studies and allied assignments.
16. Healthy and nutritious food should be packed for tiffin along with a napkin.
17. In case you need, any help for school/Principal, regarding the well being of your ward please, do not hesitate to communicate.
18. Whenever changes occur in your residence/office address and telephone numbers kindly notify it in writing to the school office and the class teachers immediately.
19. Parents are requested to see that their ward does not bring home anything from the school without the teacher's knowledge, and if se send it back the very next day and inform the teacher.

EXPECTATIONS FROM STUDENTS
